The New Jersey Society of the Colonial Dames of America believe the Church Records and the Bible Records herein transcribed are offered to the public for the first time.

The Trustees of the Lawrenceville Presbyterian Church during 1915 loaned their earliest record books to Julia Bedford Gill, chairman of the Committee of Historical Research of the New Jersey Society of the Colonial Dames of America, which she copied and personally returned to the pastor the same year.

The earliest records in possession of the church began more than a half century later than the date of organization. If earlier records were kept, they must have been lost.

The records presented cover the period from those of the earliest recorded date to 1850.

All the material presented has been transcribed from the record books of the church except the notes on the early history of the church taken from Dr. Hale's historical discourse.

The Society feels much satisfaction in being able to publish these records in commemoration of its organization fifty years ago and takes this opportunity to express appreciation to the trustees of the Lawrenceville Presbyterian Church and to the members of this Society who have made the book possible.

President.

A Brief Historical Sketch

The earliest evidence that there were Christian people in Maidenhead uniting together for the maintenance of religious worship is found in the record of a deed dated March 18, 1698-9: By this deed, "the West Jersey Society by their agents, Jeremiah Basse and Thomas Revell, convey to Ralph Hunt, Jn° Bainbridge, Johannes Lawrenson (up Dyck), W^m^ Hixson, Jn° Bryerley, Sam^l^ Hunt, Theophilus Philipps, Jonathan Davis, Tho: Smith, Jasper Smith, Tho: Coleman, Benjamin Hardin, W^m^ Akers, Robert Lannen, Phillip Phillipps, Joshua Andris, Samuel Davis, Elnathan Davis, Enoch Andris, Cornelius Andris, James Bice, John Runion, Tho: Runion, Hezekiah Benham, Benja: Maple, Lawrence Updike, Joseph Sackett and Edward Hunt, all of Maidenhead, Burlington Co. for one hundred acres there, of the Society's 15,000 acre tract above the Falls of Delaware, to be used for a meeting house, burying ground and schoolhouse."

LIBER B, PART 2, WEST JERSEY RECORDS

The first ecclesiastical record of this congregation is found in the Minutes of the Presbytery of Philadelphia, May 11, 1709, as follows:— "Ordered, that Mr. Smith go to the people of Maidenhead and Hopewell, and confer with them on such matters as shall be propounded to him by them, concerning his being called to be their minister; and that Mr. Smith preach to the people aforesaid on his way to New England, or return from it, or both; and that this be intimated to Mr. Smith, and the people be writ to by Mr. Andrews"

The Presbytery Minutes of Sept. 11, 1711, show a further effort on the part of the congregation to secure a minister but it was not until five years later that a regular minister was secured. On October 20, 1716, the Rev. Robert Orr was ordained at Maidenhead as the first minister of the church there. The pastoral relations of Mr. Orr continued about four years.

The Rev. Moses Dickinson was the second pastor. He was born Dec. 12, 1695, at Springfield, Mass., son of Hezekiah and Abigail Dickinson. He was graduated at Yale College in 1717. He continued in the pastoral relation at Maidenhead until 1727.

The Rev. Joseph Morgan was the third pastor. He was graduated at Yale College in 1702, one of the members of the first class of that college. He became pastor of the church of Maidenhead and Hopewell in 1729 and continued his pastorate for eight years, until April 6, 1737.

The fourth pastor was Rev. John Guild, who was born in Wrentham, Mass. in 1712, a son of John and Esther Guild. He was graduated from Harvard College in 1734, and was ordained at Hopewell Nov. 11, 1741. Mr. Guild gave one fourth of his time to the Maidenhead church at least as late as 1769. His relation to that church was never formally constituted and no action was taken in reference to the cessation of his labors. Owing to infirmities his request for a dissolution of his pastoral relation with the Hopewell people was granted April 26, 1785. He died July 10, 1787.

From "A History of the Old Presbyterian Congregation of The People of Maidenhead and Hopewell" by Rev. George Hale, D.D.

The following notes are taken from the Trustees' Book of the Presbytrian Church at Maidenhead.

On March 20, 1790 the congregation agreed to secure one half of the time of the Rev. Mr. Armstrong, and to pay him £100 annually while he continued their pastor. Mr. Armstrong accepted the call April 1, 1790.

The Rev. Isaac V. Brown was installed as pastor June 10, 1807. His salary was $600. per year. He taught private pupils, who were accommodated in the gallery, for the use of which he paid the Trustees thirty dollars yearly.

The Rev. Henry Axtell was elected 1830, and ordained pastor, June 16, 1830.

The Rev. Joseph Mahon was the pastor in 1836, and severed his connection with the church May 22, 1848.

The church was without a regular pastor until May 24, 1851, when the Rev. A. Gosman was installed.

The Presbyterian Church in Maidenhead was incorporated Aug. 1, 1787, the Trustees so incorporating being Edmund Bainbridge, Nath^{n} Hunt, Benj^{n} Van Cleve, Stephen Johnes, Waters Smith, Aaron Van Cleve, Henry Mershon. Recorded Aug. 4, 1787, for the Registry of Deeds, County of Hunterdon, page 266. They called themselves "Trustees of the Presbyterian Church in the Township of Maidenhead in the County of Hunterdon and State of New Jersey." They took a triple oath—to support the Constitution of the United States, to bear true faith and allegiance to the Government established in this State, and to faithfully, impartially and justly perform all the duties of Trustees—before a Justice of the Peace.

At the time of incorporation, and until 1804, Edmund Bainbridge was chosen President of the Board. He was also Treasurer of the congregation.

On Oct. 27, 1804, the congregation met to choose a Trustee in the place of Edmund Bainbridge, deceased, and as many more as the people might think proper. The following were chosen:—

Waters Smith, President
Aaron Van Cleve	Jn^{o} Stevens
Caleb Smith Green	Jn^{o} Phillips, tanner
James Smith	Israel Stevens

May 1, 1811. The congregation elected Isaac Brearley and Philip Hendrickson, Trustees, in place of Aaron Van Cleve and James Smith, deceased

Jan. 6, 1820, L. W. Phillips was sworn in as Trustee.

Feb. 25, 1820, the name of the Corporation was changed to "The Trustees of the Presbyterian Church in the Township of Lawrence in the County of Hunterdon and State of New Jersey."

Aug. 16, 1824, Joseph Peirson and Charles Reeder became Trustees.

Jan. 4, 1830, Doctor Joseph Phillips and Ralph H. Mershon were sworn in as Trustees.

April 21, 1839, The Trustees at this date were

Caleb S. Green, President

Charles Reeder	James Stevens
Jones Brearley	G. W. Johnson
Henry Van Cleve	L. W. R. Phillips

Apr. 14, 1842, The following Trustees were elected to fill vacancies:— Samuel M. Hamill, William S. Cook, Samuel D. Mershon, Stephen J. Brearley. The members who had resigned were Caleb S. Green, Charles Reeder, L. W. R. Phillips.

Apr. 12, 1845, George Phillips was elected a Trustee.

In April, 1822, the congregation numbered 96 communicants.

Written in pencil inside first cover—'Almost the only books Bunyan ever read at least before he wrote the Pilgrim's Progress were the Bible, the Book of Martyrs, a copy of Luther on the Galatians, and 2 volumes the Plain Man's Pathway to Heaven and the Practice of Piety which formed the marriage portion of his wife. Fox's old Book of Martyrs had next the Bible a great & thrilling power over Bunyan's spirit.

The above was written by my dear mother.
